Season Ticket Terms and conditions

Season tickets can only be used by the person named on the ticket.

Misuse of a season ticket will result in the ticket being retained by the Park and the remainder of the ticket's duration will be forfeited.

Season ticket holders will be required to provide proof of identity in the form of an alternate proof of signature which must match that shown on the season ticket (acceptable forms of ID include bank cards and driving licence) you may be required to give a sample of your signature on entrance to the Park.

Season ticket holders are subject to standard rules of entry.

Cotswold Wildlife Park reserves the right to refuse admission with a season ticket which has been defaced or shows signs of being tampered with.

Refund of day ticket terms and conditions

If you visited the park within the last seven days and would now like to purchase a season ticket, we can refund the cost of your day visit to the Park from the cost of your season ticket (providing you still have your receipt).

Please download the application form from here and send it to the Park with the receipt from your visit attached (please note without this receipt we are unable to refund the cost of your day visit).

Your season ticket will be valid for one year from the date of your refunded day visit to the Park and will be available for you to collect from the Pay Kiosk on your next visit to the Park (we are unable to post out season tickets as they must be signed for on collection).
